SECTION 4: CATHOLIC SCHOOL COUNCIL ROLES

INTRODUCTION

Catholic School Councils are a gift to the Catholic school community. These councils are a structure within which parents, staff, students, parish, and Ontario Association of Parents in Catholic Education (OAPCE) representatives are afforded the opportunity to exercise their own vocation as parents and people of faith.

Catholic School Councils have the opportunity to influence educational and faith formation experiences as children journey towards realizing the Ontario Catholic School Graduate Expectations and ultimately, a vocation of Christ-like service in the world beyond school. As a body representing children's first educators in the faith, the board and school principals can gain valuable insights from Catholic School Councils into the cultivation of truly authentic Catholic education and faith formation experiences for children (i.e. Pastoral plans, sacramental preparation, virtue formation, social justice initiatives, school-based services and community collaborations related to the spiritual/faith life of the school, etc.).

PURPOSE

Catholic School Councils are formed in accordance with the Ministry of Education, Government of Ontario, in the form of Ontario Regulation 612/00, which outlines the requirement to establish school councils, Ontario Regulation 298 Operations of Schools, and the Education Act, Section 265, which outlines the duties of principals.

The Catholic School Council operates under the auspices of the Dufferin-Peel Catholic District School Board and adheres to Regulations 612/00 and 298, the Education Act, section 265 and Dufferin-Peel Catholic District School Board applicable policies and procedures.

As per Ontario Regulation 612/00, the purpose of a school council is, through the active participation of the parents, to improve pupil achievement and to enhance the accountability of the education system to parents/guardians.

In addition to the purpose of school councils as identified in Ontario Regulation 612/00, the mission of Catholic School Councils in the Dufferin-Peel Catholic District School Board, is to promote the vision, values and sacramental life of Catholic practices of the Dufferin-Peel Catholic District School Board and the Catholic community it serves, and advise the Principal and board.

The Catholic School Council, guided by policies, procedures, beliefs and practices of the Dufferin-Peel Catholic District School Board, shall identify problems and concerns within the school environment and work collaboratively to develop strategies and solutions to enhance the faith formation, overall development and educational experiences of all students. The Catholic School Council shall promote and maintain a positive, faith-infused school environment for all students and staff; facilitate the active and meaningful participation of parents, and all members of the school community, and provide staff, parents, and students with an accountable system to which they can voice their concerns, comments and suggestions for enhancing the faith, well-being and academic improvement of the school community.

CODE OF ETHICS

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Catholic School Council members must be independent and impartial in carrying out their duties. Each member of the Catholic School Council shall avoid situations that could result in an actual, potential, or perceived conflict between the overall goals and vision of the Catholic School Council and a personal or pecuniary interest in that of a Catholic School Council member.

A conflict of interest for a Catholic School Council member is any situation in which the individual's private interests may be incompatible or in conflict with his or her

Catholic School Council responsibility. A conflict of interest may be actual, perceived or potential.

Actual: When a Catholic School Council member has a private interest that is sufficiently connected to his or her duties and responsibilities as a council member that it influences the exercise of these duties and responsibilities.

Perceived: When reasonably well-informed persons could reasonably believe that a Catholic School Council member has a conflict of interest, even where, in fact, there is no real conflict of interest.

Potential: When a Catholic School Council member has a private interest that could affect his or her decision about matters proposed for discussion.

Catholic School Council members shall declare a conflict of interest in matters that they, members of their families, or business entities in which they may have an interest, stand to benefit either directly or indirectly by decisions of the Catholic School Council. A member shall exclude him/herself from discussions in which:

1. A conflict of interest is likely to result;
2. The member's ability to carry out his or her duties and responsibilities as a member of the Catholic School Council may be jeopardized;
3. The council member, his or her relatives, or a business entity in which the member may have an interest, may gain or benefit either directly or indirectly as a result of actions that may be taken by the Principal or Board in response to advice that the council provides to the Principal or the Board.

A member of the Catholic School Council shall not accept favours or economic benefits from any individuals, organizations, or entities known to be seeking business contracts with the school.

CONFLICT RESOLUTION

A Catholic School Council shall include in its bylaws, procedures to address and achieve "conflict resolution". Where conflict amongst members of a Catholic School Council impacts the safe, efficient, and manageable operation of the school council and the school, procedures must be put in place to address and resolve the conflict. At all times, the principal will be involved in this process. The method of conflict resolution must be conducted in the spirit of Catholic values with a goal to continue the valuable work of the Catholic School Council.

Catholic School Council members are elected and appointed to serve the school community and will demonstrate respect for their colleagues on council at all times.

Where conflict amongst Catholic School Council members impacts the safe, efficient, and manageable operation of the School Council the following procedures will take place:

1. If a council member or members become disruptive during a meeting, the chair shall ask for order,
2. If all efforts to restore order fail or the disruptive behaviour continues, the chair may direct the individual to leave the meeting, citing the reason for the request,
3. If order cannot be restored the meeting can be adjourned and reconvened at a future date,
4. The removal of the member for one meeting does not prevent the council member from participating in future meetings on council,
5. The incident shall be recorded and submitted to the Superintendent of Schools within one week of the meeting,
6. When the chair has requested the removal of a member, the chair shall request that the disputing members of council participate in a special meeting, the purpose of which will be to arrive at a mutually acceptable solution to the dispute. Such a meeting may be a private meeting and shall not be construed as a meeting of the council. The Principal must be present,
7. The Chair, Principal or Superintendent may request the intervention of an independent third party to serve as a facilitator to assist in achieving a resolution to the dispute,
8. Any resolution reached at the meeting to resolve the conflict shall be signed and respected in full by all parties to the agreement,
9. If the Chairperson (co-chairs) and another member of the Catholic School Council are involved in the conflict, the Principal and the Vice-Chair will assume the responsibility for the mediation,
10. This method of conflict resolution must be conducted in the spirit of Catholic values with a goal to continue the valuable work of the Catholic School Council.

Recognizing conflict is important. Signs of potential conflict:

1. Sending unauthorized information home to parents on behalf of council,
2. Verbal abuse of council members or the chair,
3. Harassment of council members or the chair,
4. Constantly interrupting speakers, interjecting derogatory comments,
5. Breach of Code of Ethics,
6. Raising personal issues at a meeting (discussing an individual child's educational problems),
7. Misuse of or distribution of Catholic School Council members personal contact information.

All of these behaviours jeopardize attendance at meetings and discourage potential member from seeking positions on council. As a result, the council risks losing its credibility and the confidence of the school community.

The facilitator should use the four-step approach to resolving conflict:

1. Acknowledge the conflict. As a group, acknowledge when a conflict exists and determine the source of the conflict. For example, is it related to facts, goals, processes, values, personal preferences, beliefs, communication?
2. Plan how to deal with the Conflict. Once the source of the conflict is defined, decide how to deal with it. The chair, another individual on the council, or the entire council, may do this. In particularly difficult times, it may be best to engage a person who has no association with the council to facilitate discussions and problems solving. At this stage, all council members should reflect on the problem and be prepared to state their concerns and viewpoints.
3. Provide time for discussion. The chair or whoever is facilitating the discussion should introduce the problem and ask each member for input so that the nature and source of the conflict are clear. Acknowledging each person by listening attentively sets the tone for problem solving and opens the council to a variety of solutions. Emotions should be accepted and dealt with since they are part of the conflict. Seek the best solution. As viewpoints and solutions are described, the individual facilitating the discussion deals with them one at a time.
4. Following the discussion, the person facilitating the discussion may use a process for building consensus to arrive at a new solution. Council members will be asked to following questions: Can you live with this solution? Will you support the solution?

If the facilitator and superintendent are unable to resolve the conflict and or the Catholic School Council member(s) don't adhere to the solution or to the Catholic School Council Code of Ethics outlined below, the following actions can be taken:

1. The Catholic School Council member(s) may choose to submit a letter of resignation to the school council. A template is provided in Section 3.
2. The facilitator and or superintendent, in consultation with Catholic School Council members, may send a letter to the School Council member(s) requesting that their term of office be terminated for that school year only.

MAKING YOUR CATHOLIC SCHOOL COUNCIL SUCCESSFUL

COMMUNICATION

The Catholic School Council is required to keep members of the school community informed about its activities. Effective communication is an ongoing process and an essential component of a successful school council.

Catholic School Councils must have sound methods of communicating with the school principal, with the school board, with parents, and with each other. The school council's communication strategy should also include an effective method of communicating with the school community on a regular basis.

The chair/co-chair must ensure that council members are accessible to each other. It is a good idea to develop a list of contact numbers, addresses, and e-mail addresses for all council members at the beginning of the year and to distribute the list to all members. The chair/co-chairs and the principal must establish an effective way to communicate outside of regular meetings.

Trust, respect, and open communication are the nucleus for an effective partnership and, ultimately, an effective Catholic School Council. Partner with the school so that information can be sent home via the parent e-mail distribution list.

Assume a public profile in the school and in the school community. Opportunities may take the form of:

1. Setting up a Catholic School Council information table on Curriculum evening, Parent-Teacher Interview night and Welcome to Kindergarten evening,
2. Sending students home with a newsletter that could include the Council's meeting minutes and/or posting the minutes on the school website,
3. Posting notices in the parish church and community halls,
4. Setting up a Catholic School Council display in the main foyer of the school.
5. Establishing a webpage for your Catholic School Council which is accessible through your school web site. You will be able to post a lot of information parents will find helpful and informative
6. Network with other school councils
7. Participate in the organizations that are available for your use and represent the parents in our schools:
 - a. Family of Schools Meetings,
 - b. Central Committee of Catholic School Councils – through attendance at meetings and/or the in-service training sessions that are put on for the benefit of parents on School Councils,

- c. Ontario Association of Parents in Catholic Education. Your involvement will ensure that you have updated information to share with your Councils.
Note: Many will place you on their e-mail list and mail out information to you as well.
- 8. Establish ongoing communication with not only the Principal, Vice-Principals, members of the Catholic School Council but also with the staff and students within your school,
- 9. Call your Trustee and establish a communication link with him/her,
- 10. Learn the name of your Superintendent and how to reach him/her,
- 11. Attend a Board meeting at the Catholic Education Center and watch your Trustees in action. All meetings are open to the public and agendas are provided at the door. This is truly an educational experience.

ACTIVITIES THAT PROMOTE POSITIVE RELATIONSHIPS AMONG COUNCIL MEMBERS AND THE SCHOOL COMMUNITY

Most schools have successful activities that promote positive relationships among members of Council and the community. Some proven ones in our schools are:

1. The holding of a Retreat early in the School year as soon as a new Council is established,
2. Retreats in a casual setting and which welcomes the participation by all members equally places everyone on an even playing field,
3. Music and Lighting are important as it sets the mood,
4. Sharing activities are the best way to “humanize” people and get rid of the “them” and “us” feeling that may or may not exist,
5. Trust walks – work great with groups of people who may not know each other,
6. Readings should be pertinent to your theme/focus for the evening/weekend/day,
7. Social time for over-night retreats – Laughter/FUN/Games (Trivial Pursuit),
8. Cost should not be a factor. This is an investment in the future of your school and the benefits definitely outweigh the costs.

Community Barbecues – Involving Administration/Staff/Parents /Students/Trustees/ Superintendents and in some cases local politicians working together at an open community function fosters friendship and mutual respect throughout the school community and local community. This is a visual sign of co-operation by all partners.

Plan a “Share the Meal” with your Trustee, Superintendent, Priests of your feeder parishes and the members of your Catholic School Council (which includes your Administration team and our Chaplain, which will be a potluck and held at the school.

Establish a Welcome Committee whose job it is to welcome new parents to the school community. This can be done through an individual welcoming letter to parents inviting them to come out to one of your Catholic School Council meetings.

Hold Joint workshops/speakers within your school community, Family of Schools, inviting parents from feeder schools (if the topic is applicable), students and parents. Fosters partnerships.

Joint activities such as Christmas Liturgies, Adopting Families, Food Drives, Toy Drives, Terry Fox Runs etc.

EFFECTIVE MEETINGS - EFFECTIVE CATHOLIC SCHOOL COUNCILS

Have you ever met anyone who truly enjoys going to meetings? Usually meetings are looked upon as a period of time taken out of a very busy day to discuss and discuss and never go anywhere.

Productive meetings are those that have a purpose, a timeframe (determined beginning and end), a roadmap or agenda and a result or conclusion. It is imperative that Catholic School Council meetings are held in a place where all stakeholders can have access to the meeting. Usually, the meetings are held at the school. The chairperson and principal should determine your agenda in consultation with all Catholic School Council members. Ask for input into the agenda at least two weeks prior to your meeting. Circulate the agenda through "back pack express", or e-mail and ask that anyone who cannot attend the meeting call the council secretary with the notice of absence.

The Catholic School Council agenda should reflect the Catholicity of the school council in that the meeting should always open and close with a prayer. You will find sample prayers and other examples of liturgies in this handbook.

Your agenda should cover old topics which still need to be addressed, or that have some follow-up reports made. Your agenda should be approved by the council before your proceed with the meeting. There should be reports under new business which reflect ongoing or new topics. Remember to review and approve your minutes and financial statements. Your council secretary should record all discussion and votes in the minutes.

Minutes should be circulated to all council members and amended and approved at the next council meeting. Remember that Catholic School Council minutes must be made public to your school community.
